OUTSIDE VENDOR POLICY

The College of Medicine does not endorse the sale of products from any outside vendor, including but not limited to board preparation resources and medical equipment. Students choosing to act as representatives or ambassadors for outside vendors, even without gain, may violate University of Nebraska policies and do so at their own risk. No University facilities or resources, including UNMC email, the UNMC logo, or other branded materials, may be used for marketing, distribution of information related to, or soliciting sales of vendor's products unless approved by the Dean's Business Office.
