

COLLEGE OF PUBLIC HEALTH ORGANIZATIONS

College of Public Health Student Association

The CPH Student Association represents the interest of both graduate and professional students within the CPH. The purpose of UNMC's College of Public Health Student Association is to maintain a body representative of CPH students to the college leadership and external entities; advance the academic and social needs of CPH students; provide and sustain vehicles for communication between students, faculty, administration, alumni, and the community-at-large; create and promote opportunities for community involvement; disseminate educational and professional development resources; support a positive educational experience; and stimulate interest in and advance the profession of public health. The Assistant Dean for Student Affairs serves as the advisor for the CPH Student Association. The officers of the CPH Student Association include the President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, First-Year Student Representative, Online Student Representative, and UNMC Student Senate Representatives.
