

STUDENT COMPLAINT PROCESS

Policy Statement

The University of Nebraska System is an organization with strong values of responsibility and integrity. Our Code of Ethics (<https://secure.ethicspoint.com/domain/media/en/gui/52126/code.pdf>) contains general guidelines for conducting business with the highest standards of ethics.

The University is committed to providing a safe, secure, and ethical working and learning environment and is striving for a community where open, honest communications are the expectation, not the exception. The University relies on you to speak up if you believe you have observed unethical, illegal, or suspicious behavior.

If you have a complaint involving the University of Nebraska System, the right next step depends on your campus and where you live. The NU Complaint Process website (<https://nebraska.edu/offices/provosts-office/resources-regulations/nu-online/complaint-process>) is designed to help you identify the appropriate complaint pathway.

Students should begin with their department, college, or campus complaint process. Students can find these processes on their department or College websites.

All students may also use the EthicsPoint Reporting Tool (<https://secure.ethicspoint.com/domain/media/en/gui/52126/>) or by phone, 844-348-9584 (dial toll-free within the United States). Complaints may be made anonymously if so desired.
