

HEALTH PROFESSIONS TEACHING & TECHNOLOGY

The purpose of the Certificate in Health Professions Teaching & Technology is to provide health professions educators with an introduction topics in health science education, teaching skills, and the science of teaching. Students must complete a total of 12 credit hours to earn the certificate. A list of eligible courses can be found below. Students completing the certificate program may elect to continue their studies to earn a Master of Health Professions Teaching & Technology.

Code	Title	Credit Hours
HPTT Courses
Students must complete any four of the following courses:
HPTT 801	FOUNDATIONS OF HEALTH PROFESSIONS EDUCATION	3
HPTT 802	INSTRUCTIONAL DESIGN FOR HEALTH PROFESSIONS EDUCATION	3
HPTT 803	INTEGRATING TECHNOLOGY INTO HEALTH PROFESSIONS CURRICULUM	3
HPTT 804	MULTIMEDIA AND EMERGING TECHNOLOGIES FOR LEARNING IN THE HEALTH PROFESSIONS	3
HPTT 805	EVALUATION AND ASSESSMENT OF TEACHING AND LEARNING IN HEALTH PROFESSIONS EDUCATION	3
HPTT 823	LEADERSHIP IN HEALTH PROFESSIONS EDUCATION	3
HPTT 830	RESEARCH ANALYSIS AND DESIGN FOR HEALTH PROFESSIONS EDUCATION	3
Health Educators and Academic Leaders (HEAL) students will substitute the following four seminar courses for one of the three credit courses listed above.
HPTT 876: HEAL seminar series A (1 CR)
HPTT 877: HEAL seminar series B (1 CR)
HPTT 878: HEAL seminar series C (1 CR)
HPTT 879: HEAL seminar series D (1 CR)

Total

Credits for Certificate = 12 credits