

COLLEGE OF MEDICINE

From the Dean

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to the University of Nebraska College of Medicine. Your journey into the health care profession is just beginning and let me be the first to not only congratulate you but also welcome you.

You have worked long and hard to get to this point but your work is only beginning. Medicine is life-long learning, and we are here to give you the tools to assist you in this process and guide you along the path to your eventual career and future practice.

There are many dedicated faculty and staff members throughout the College of Medicine who are here to help you and will join in your successes along the way. Please take advantage of their services and guidance. You will meet many faculty and staff members during the Orientation Week activities and they are looking forward to meeting you.
