

CANCELLATION

As a general rule the College of Medicine does not cancel classes/clinical rotations because of weather or other events. Students should make their own decision when travel appears to be hazardous.

If a required event/class is scheduled and a student feels they are unable to travel to campus, it is the student's responsibility to communicate with the Office of Medical Education at 402-559-8682.