

VISITING STUDENTS

The University of Nebraska Medical Center College of Medicine (COM) posts senior/final level of medical school elective opportunities in the Visiting Student Learning Opportunities (VSLO) program application service. The COM only extends elective offers through the VSLO program. Our VSLO program institution name is University of Nebraska College of Medicine.

Find a visiting student opportunity.

Questions

- Address general inquiries to VSLO@unmc.edu (vslo@unmc.edu).
- Address scheduling questions directly to the appropriate department (<https://catalog.unmc.edu/medicine/curriculum/phase3/career-specialty-tracks/>).

Junior/Third Year Clerkships

The COM does not offer junior/third year clerkships to visiting students.

Residency Programs

We invite and encourage you to explore our residency programs (<https://www.unmc.edu/com/residencies-fellowships/graduate-medical-education-programs.html>).

Eligibility

The visiting student must be at the senior/final level of medical school at the time of the proposed elective.

The University of Nebraska Medical Center College of Medicine (COM) does not accept applications from students attending:

- foreign medical schools,
- non-LCME accredited M.D. institutions,
- non-COCA accredited D.O. institutions.

Rotations

Elective rotations are four (4) weeks in length and are offered each month of the academic year. The visiting student will be expected to adhere to the COM rotations schedule (<https://catalog.unmc.edu/medicine/academic-calendar-2025-2026/#classof2026text>) and be able to attend all four (4) weeks of the offered rotation. Only one (1) rotation can be accepted per visiting student.

The COM does not offer two (2) week elective rotations.
